

PUBLIC HEALTH GRAND ROUNDS

Making Greater Rochester Safer and Healthier with Cutting Edge Research and Child Abuse Prevention Efforts: The Impact of the Mt. Hope Family Center

The integration of NIH-funded research into the clinical services of UR's Mt. Hope Family Center will be showcased along with its impact on families and children at risk for child abuse and neglect. The biological embedding of early-life stress will be discussed along with behavioral interventions shown to mitigate the impact of trauma on stress-mediated processes that help explain mental and physical health disparities.

Friday, November 15
12:00pm – 1:00pm
Zoom Webinar

Jennie Noll, PhD
Director, Mt. Hope Family Center;
Professor of Psychology, URM

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED USING THE LINK BELOW

https://rochester.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_L0X15CrUSFWDLW3yLUS9QQ

*ASL interpreters have been requested.
A good faith effort (up until the time of the webinar)
will be made to provide accommodations.
Live closed captioning provided.*

For continuing education credits, please visit this link:
<https://www.urmc.rochester.edu/community-health/education/grand-rounds.aspx>

QUESTIONS? Contact
Carolyn_Settle@URMC.Rochester.edu

Presented in collaboration with the Department of Public Health Sciences and Center for Community Health & Prevention, with additional funding from the UR Clinical and Translational Science Institute

UNIVERSITY of ROCHESTER
MEDICAL CENTER