

Course Learning Objectives

- Explain shift from individual- to population-based care in a disaster or public health emergency
- Practice mass casualty triage in a simulated disaster scenario
- Choose strategies to establish organizational and community surge capacity in a disaster or public health emergency

©2015 National Disaster Life Support Foundation, Inc. All rights reserved.

ADLS® v.3.2

Course Learning Objectives

- Differentiate roles performed in an emergency operations or incident command center established in response to a simulated mass casualty event
- Discuss legal, regulatory, and ethical principles and practices to provide crisis standards of care in a disaster or public health emergency

©2015 National Disaster Life Support Foundation, Inc. All rights reserved.

ADLS® v.3.2

Course Learning Objectives

- Select personal protective equipment and decontamination measures appropriate for personnel and public health protection in a disaster or public health emergency
- Apply clinical skills for the management of mass casualties in simulated all-hazards scenarios

©2015 National Disaster Life Support Foundation, Inc. All rights reserved.

ADLS® v.3.2

Course Faculty

- Allan Chrysler, CHEP, MEP, CHEC III
- Patrick Byrne, RN, BSN, MEP, CHEC III
- Jonathan Dalton, AEMT-P
- Anne D'Angelo, MS, RN, CHEC III
- Denise Eggert, RN
- Sandra Kerns, PA
- Brooke Lerner, PhD, FA-EMS
- James Monahan, MS, RN, CHEC III
- Deborah Palumbos, BA
- Donna Sowles, RN, CHEC III

©2015 National Disaster Life Support Foundation, Inc. All rights reserved.

ADLS® v.3.2

Course Faculty

- All instructors are NDLS certified
- There are no disclosures commercial or personal for any instructors today.

©2015 National Disaster Life Support Foundation, Inc. All rights reserved.

ADLS® v.3.2

Day One Overview

Lesson One	Disasters and public health emergencies
Lesson Two	Triage for disasters
Lesson Three	Health system surge capacity
Lesson Four	Community health emergency operations and response
Lesson Five	Legal and ethical issues in disasters
Skills station	Mass casualty triage scenario
Skills station	Population scenarios
Skills station	Surge capacity

©2015 National Disaster Life Support Foundation, Inc. All rights reserved.

ADLS® v.3.2

Day Two Overview

Lesson Six	PPE and decontamination
Safety briefing
Skills station	Casualty management
Skills station	PPE and decontamination
Situational training exercise	Mass casualty scene management and AAR
Situational training exercise	Community EOC management and AAR

©2015 National Disaster Life Support Foundation, Inc. All rights reserved.

ADLS® v.3.2

Course Requirements

- Register at <http://Register.NDLSF.org>
- Complete pre-test on-line after registering
- Review ADLS® participant manual
- Participate in all ADLS course components
- Complete post-test on-line with 80% score or better
- Complete on-line participant evaluation
- Print your certificate of completion

©2015 National Disaster Life Support Foundation, Inc. All rights reserved.

ADLS® v.3.2

ADLS v.3.2 summary

- Meets competencies through defined objectives
- Applies NDLS™ program principles
- Requires hands-on engagement

© 2015 National Disaster Life Support Foundation, Inc. All rights reserved. ADLS® v.3.2

MR1
MR2
