

Ben Sensenbach, FP-C, TP-C, Paramedic

Division of Prehospital Medicine, University of Rochester Medical Center

Benjamin Sensenbach EMT-P, FP-C, TP-C, is the Monroe-Livingston EMS Program Agency Administrator as well as a practicing Paramedic with Mercy Flight Central, Wayne County Advanced Life Support and Pittsford Ambulance. He is two-tour combat veteran of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan where he served as corpsman with the Fleet Marine Force and Navy Special Warfare. His educational expertise is in tactical emergency medicine and trauma care and actively supports all administrative, operational, and quality improvement programs within the Division of Prehospital Medicine at the University of Rochester.