

Beth Moses, RN, BSN, TCRN, AEMT

Trauma Injury Prevention and Education Coordinator
Erie County Medical Center – Level 1 Trauma Center

Beth is the Trauma Injury Prevention and Education Coordinator at Erie County Medical Center in Buffalo and is responsible for outreach education as well as teaching and /or coordinating the trauma courses (ATLS and ATCN) for nurses and providers. Beth's experience at ECMC includes 17 years as a staff nurse in the Trauma ICU and 7 years as the Unit Manager of Cardiac Surgery Step Down. She has been an EMS provider with the Hamburg Volunteer Fire Department for 36 years, serving in many leadership positions.