

Glenn A. Miller, BSAS, NRP

Pediatric Disaster Response and Emergency Preparedness Instructor

Professional History

- Active Paramedic for over 25 years
- 12 Years experience as a Hospital Emergency Preparedness Coordinator
- Pre-Hospital Service Administration for ALS Emergency and Non-Emergency Transport Services
- Prior Service, United States Army

Education

- BSAS – Allied Health, Emergency Medical Services
- AAS – Allied Health, Emergency Medical Services

Affiliations

- Nationally Registered EMT-Paramedic
- Ohio and Pennsylvania Paramedic
- ACLS, PALS and ITLS certified
- Emergency Medical Dispatcher (EMD) Certified

SKILLS SUMMARY:

Emergency preparedness background that spans the healthcare and public safety continuums, including emergency preparedness, emergency medical services, emergency management/emergency operations center experience, hazardous materials response, hospital, fire service, and regional medical and public health response and planning for large-scale disasters.

RELEVANT PROJECT EXPERIENCE:

30 Years of progressive experience developing and implementing a variety of public safety and homeland security systems educational programs including, but not limited to: Health care emergency preparedness; Emergency Medical Services; emergency management; hazardous materials; and chemical, biological, radiological, nuclear, explosive, and emergency response

Provide generalized subject matter expertise related to CBRNE, WMD, medical surge solutions, pandemic preparedness, special needs populations preparedness, Joint Commission emergency management plan compliance for hospitals, National Incident Management System (NIMS) compliance, and general emergency preparedness support.

Curriculum development and delivery of various DHS funded educational programs including Pediatric Disaster Response and Emergency Preparedness (MGT-439); Medical Management of CBRNE Events (PER-211); Medical Countermeasures: Points of Dispensing, Planning and Response (MGT-319); WMD Defensive Operations (PER-212), and Medical Preparedness and Response for Bombing Incidents program (MGT-348).

PUBLICATIONS:

Contributing Author – Pre-Hospital Emergency Care, 8th and 9th editions – Prentice Hall Publishing, 2007 - 2009

Contributing Author – Critical Care Paramedic - Prentice Hall Publishing, 2006

Contributing Author –Prehospital Advanced Cardiac Life Support 2nd Ed - Prentice Hall Publishing; 2004