

Mahlon Hurst, EMT
Volunteer Firefighter/EMT, Potter Fire Department
Educator on Farm Safety, Buggy Accidents and First Aid

Mahlon Hurst has been involved in emergency services as an EMT and FF for 30 years. He is an Old Order Mennonite living in Yates County, where more than one in ten residents is Mennonite. When taking a break from running his saw mill, Mahlon visits all 32 Mennonite schools in Yates, Ontario and Schuyler counties to teach kids farm safety, horse and buggy safety, and first aid. He is an EMT and an evaluator for practical skill stations. He builds miniature trains and layouts as a hobby.
