

Timothy Page, MD
Medical Director
Watkins Glen International

Dr. Page attended the accelerated college/medical school at Wilkes University in Wilkes Barre Pa and Hahnemann Medical University in Philadelphia, PA. After medical school, Tim completed his residency at Robert Packer Hospital in Sayre, PA and a fellowship in Critical Care at the State University of New York in Syracuse. Tim was a Critical Care professor at SUNY Upstate in Syracuse for 8 years, an Emergency Department Physician for 22 years, has held numerous Emergency Department Directorships and Regional Emergency Department Directorships in Central New York.

Tim was awarded the “Team Health Emergency Department Medical Director of Year” in 2011. He is currently Medical Director for 29 EMS and Fire agencies. He has been the Race Physician at Watkins Glen International since 1987 and has served as Medical Director at Watkins Glen International for the past 10 years.

Tim is married and has 5 standard poodles. In his spare time he enjoys spending time in the Adirondack Mountains and riding his Harley Davidson motorcycles.