

Example of Daily MIPS Interdisciplinary Discussions: Roles and Key Information Discussed

Bedside Nurse	Patient's Daily Function, and Experience	vitals, activity, appetite, sleep, brings patient's questions to the team, discussion of how patient is coping with illness
Pharmacist	Medical and Psychiatric Medications	new medications: potential risks and interactions of medications, history of adverse effects from medications
Social Worker	Community Needs	information about patient's health-related needs in the community, family concerns, community supports
MD/APP	Acute Medical Care	diagnosis, acuity and prognosis tests and treatments planned Information from consultants and primary care
Psychologist	Engagement and Coping	patient's engagement in care, safety planning and coping strategies
Psychiatrist	Psychiatric Care	psychiatric diagnosis, acuity and need for treatment, information from outpatient mental health team
Care Manager	Home needs/Follow up	assesses and coordinates services needed at home, follow up appointments