

Factor X Chromogenic Test- Cessation of Testing

Date: October 27th, 2022

---

Effective Date: November 2nd, 2022

As of November 2nd, 2022, Factor X Chromogenic testing at UR Medicine Laboratories will be discontinued. Factor X Chromogenic testing is available through reference laboratories with a turnaround time of 1-3 days. The specimen requirements for this testing are also available at the link below.

Link for more test information:

FXCH - Overview: Coagulation Factor X Chromogenic Activity Assay, Plasma \(mayocliniclabs.com\)

If you have any questions please contact Mary Johnson, Chief Supervisor for Hematology & Chemistry Laboratories at Strong Memorial Hospital, at 275-2435 or MaryG\_Johnson@urmc.rochester.edu, or Dr. Refaai at any of the below methods listed.

From: Majed Refaai, M.D.
Professor of Pathology & Laboratory Medicine
Thrombosis/Hemostasis Laboratory Director
University of Rochester Medical Center
Phone: (585) 276-3927
Email: Majed\_Refaai@urmc.rochester.edu