 - Related tests are grouped together based on disorder, then performed collectively on an algorithm pattern. Testing will be stopped once the abnormality is identified.
 - This eliminates unnecessary testing and improves patient care.
 - If desired, interpretations will be performed by special coagulation pathology residents, then reviewed & verified by the special coagulation medical director (usually covered by insurance).
 - Unique requisitions are available, please contact our Client Services department at (585) 350-2600, option 3 to order these requisitions.
 - Individual coag tests are still available.
